EL CAMINO

FOOTSTEPS TO THE FUTURE

"El Camino", translated from the Spanish, means "The Road". At the same time, the book "El Camino" is a record of the lives of North Hollywood High School students as they carry on their many activities from day to day. What better theme, for these students who travel "The Road" to the future where they will spend the remainder of their lives, than "Footsteps to the Future"?

In this, El Camino for 1957, the staff has attempted to interpret the footsteps of all "Huskies" as they have lived them. Your El Camino will remain the clearest record of your high school footsteps after even the paths which you traveled have been obliterated.

MR. JOHN G. FOX

Dedication

With seven years of wonderful work behind him, Mr. John G. Fox left "Bingville" this year for a higher position. He now serves even more people in his capacity as Assistant Superintendent of Los Angeles City schools, but students who knew his smile and friendly guidance will remember him always as Mr. Fox, principal of North Hollywood High School.

In his everyday work here, Mr. Fox gave individual attention to even the smallest student or teacher problems, and no teenager was ever treated as an inferior, but always as a young man or woman. He looked upon the campus and its many activities as a miniature community, and from his important post as guide, instructor, and friend to this community's young "citizens", Mr. Fox somehow managed to always smooth the bumps on the path to the future.

To Mr. Fox and his helping hand the yearbook staff of 1957 dedicates the El Camino. His work will remain in the minds of the students who know him, and it will serve as another of the many guide-posts in this long journey of footsteps to the future.

FACULTY

Success to Mr. Fox, but Mr. McLeod should find his stay at North Hollywood a little more pleasant than his floral gift would suggest.

Throughout the school career of today's young adult, he has been following a light on the path before him. Although he may not realize it, he is traveling in the footsteps of the adults who have chosen to lead. The faculty and administration of North Hollywood High School will continue, even after graduation day, to influence the lives of their past students as their teachings light the way to a pleasant and profitable future.

Best wishes always to a nice girl.
Dreddy

ADMINISTRATION

Although the "Huskies" lost Mr. Fox from his familiar position, another old friend, former vice-principal Norman McLeod, returned to take his place at the head of North Hollywood High School's administrative office. Mrs. Theresa Jinks and Mr. Frank Neugebauer very capably handled the duties of the vice-principals, and the trio together helped the teachers and students to make 1957 one of the best high school years ever.

Class of Summer '57

Motto: Today's Endeavor is Tomorrow's Success
Class Name: Utopians

For years now, through the primary and secondary schools, the Seniors have followed in the footsteps of their elders. In the years to come they will prove to be the leaders of community and country; thus the day has come when they must choose their own path. "NHHS" sends its Seniors on their way with a good background. As they step forward to the future, it has provided each individual with the foresight to see beyond the present.

HARRY SYKES

In January of 1957 the Titans stepped into their new roles as the leaders of their community. They had enjoyed a glorious three years at "NHHS" and their memories reminded them of many things; The Senior picnic, the prom, Grad Night, and Graduation all come back to them frequently. Even their first day as B-10's, the first school dance, football games, the cafeteria, assemblies, the Arcade, and service clubs will return to mind as they glance through their El Camino for 1957.

The Titans of Winter 1957

The Senior Ayes of W'57 found their three years at North Hollywood coming to a rapid close; in order to preserve the memories of their last moments, the Titans captured these activities on film. Recognizable above are Bonnie Pitts, Harry Sykes, Mrs. Evans, Wendy Higbee, Karen Bruce, Pam Mohn, Bodie Chandler, Larry Young, and Ken Jackson, just to mention a few.

The Utopians, graduating in June of 1957, left vacancies for over 600 new students; in size, as in prestige, the class of S'57 was outstanding. Behind them remain the thoughts of high school crushes, crowded hallways, their beautiful bright red sweaters, Senior wills in the Arcade, the farewell assembly, Mrs. Evans, the hash line, and the Senior Lawn with its privileges. As the path to the future grows more difficult to travel, and as the past begins to fade in the distance, North Hollywood's Utopians will refresh their memories with a glance through the El Camino of their graduation year.

North Hollywood High School's summer class was as rich in talent as it was in numbers. The Utopians, over 600 strong, graduated a record number of Sealbearers, those students who have been scholastically tops for at least four semesters, and boasted a strong Senior Aye Council under President Jim Krueger.

CLASSES

From the baby shoe to the dress black and spike heel, the footprints of the underclassmen have traveled many paths. It is here that important decisions will be made. Here the road will branch time and again so that the student must choose between right and wrong. At North Hollywood High the shoe of a future vocation is fitted to the almost mature foot, and the footsteps are guided on the proper route.

LOWER CLASS PRESIDENTS

Among other new features, the El Camino for 1957 contains for the first time a section of homeroom pictures. In this way, each and every student appears somewhere in his yearbook, and the indistinguishable tiny heads of past thousand-student pictures have been eliminated. The underclassmen are coming into their own in student government and school affairs as well, and the lower class presidents retained their seats on the Student Council during the semesters of 1957. The lower classes held their own social events, as well as boasting their own service clubs. The footsteps of these two thousand-plus students will be etched plainly on North Hollywood High School's history.

Christmas Project

In December of 1956, each North Hollywood High School homeroom adopted one or more boys and girls for which to provide a dream Christmas. Most of these boys and girls, who ranged in age up to the middle teens, were lacking the normal home life known by the Huskie teenagers. North Hollywood was proud to deliver to them many spectacular gifts, including bicycles, suits, dresses, and toys of all descriptions. Shown below are League presidents, Ron Gordon and Bonnie Pitts, and Commissioner of Girls' Athletics, Penny Smith.

Girls' and Boys' League Officers

The Student Leagues at North Hollywood High School feature something of interest to all. Each enrolled student is a member of either the Girls' or the Boys' Leagues, and these student groups carry out their own activities, as well as combining forces for a joint good-will project each semester. The Girls' League Winter and Spring festivals, special interest assemblies, the Christmas project, and many other worth-while events help to guide the Huskie footprints in the right direction.

Lower Class Officers

The lower classes have recently become more active in school affairs and politics. Assemblies, dances, and other activities are planned especially by and for the underclassmen. As they progress through their high school years, the tenth and eleventh graders are finding more things to interest them, and, by the time they reach the Senior year, their footsteps have fallen upon a varied path which is the North Hollywood extra-curricular program.

ACTIVITIES

On campus and off, between classes and after school, the footsteps choose a less rigid route. Here along the path to the future are found the resting places, where the feet which travel the well-worn path may pause for a moment to trip the light fantastic. Here may be found the bare foot of the beach enthusiast, the glittering heel at the prom, the sober black of a speaker's shoe in the auditorium, or the varied array of colorful footgear at the Senior picnic. Activities throughout school years are one of the most important influences toward future happiness, and at North Hollywood High the footsteps are well guided by a rounded array of school functions.

The members of the El Camino staff, under the advisorship of Mr. Douglas Wallace, have attempted to present an adequate picture of every student's "Foosteps to the Future." Our own footsteps were many and hurried as we attempted to meet every deadline with promptness and perfection, but the end result is ample repayment for hours spent in cutting, pasting, drawing, typing, and all-around confusion. To Mr. Fox, our past principal, we have dedicated the El Camino of 1957, but to you, the students, we pledge many an enjoyable hour as you review your high school memories through these pages.

Weekly, the Arcade staff publishes a record of activities in sports, clubs, and miscellaneous, on campus and off. They must capture in print the interesting features along the path to the future, and it is a hurried and hectic life which the members of Arcade staff, and their advisor, Miss Elizabeth Stoakes, lead from Friday to Friday. Well remembered are the April Fool issue, the After-Easter miniature, the Senior issues and their many wills, and the gigantic election issues. The Arcade, like the El Camino, provides a complete record of North Hollywood High School memories.

To follow a series of spectacular "firsts" in play production, which included "Brigadoon" in 1953 and "Annie Get Your Gun" in 1955, North Hollywood became the first high school in southern California to produce "Oklahoma" in 1957. Professional performances were given by artists with impressive lists of background experience, and the high school production could have been rated out of the "amateur" class.

Also featured during the year were Drama presentations by the English Department. North Hollywood took top ratings in the annual Shakespeare Festival, as well as presenting many enjoyable assemblies and on-campus shows. To Mrs. Barbara Shields, director of the Drama activities, and Mr. Nick Rossi, without whose guidance "Oklahoma" would have been nothing, the El Camino staff offers sincere congratulations.

Many activities are held by the R.O.T.C. each semester which spark the interest of every student. The morning and afternoon flag ceremonies are an important part of each day, and special occasions offer out-of-the-ordinary functions. Cadet Colonel Pete Kruse reached second place in the City for City-Colonel competition; he lost only by a few points. The North Hollywood rifle teams competed in matches throughout the year, winning many honors and much respect for the school. Also, for the first time, three elected girls represented the R.O.T.C. at official reviews, wearing smart blue uniforms which they selected. The boys who participate in these activities are learning today, so that they may lead tomorrow.

Included in these snapshots may be seen Crazy Hat Day, Easter Vacation enjoyment, club activities, parties, and everything imaginable.

NORTH HOLLYWOOD versus BURROUGHS

Again the Huskies started their season in a practice game with the Burroughs Indians; but, unlike last season, the Indians fielded a good team and made it a rip-snorting game.

A 48-yard pass to Jim Krueger set up the first Huskie score. With Jim Maas scoring from the six and Ron Bell's conversion, the Huskies were ahead. Burroughs rallied to tie the Huskies 7-7.

The third quarter saw both the Huskies and the Indians score. Jim Maas went over from five yards out following a 27 yard run by Mark Millard. The Burroughs team bounced back as Bud Gaither outran the Huskie defense to score. The fourth quarter went scoreless and closed on a sad 13-13 deadlock.

NORTH HOLLYWOOD versus FREMONT

Fighting mad following their tie with Burroughs, North Hollywood's Huskies took to the gridiron on our own Sandifur Field, and, in the hot sun, annihilated Fremont's Pathfinders.

Pete Holt took the opening kick-off to the 26 as North Hollywood early showed its power. Ron Fritch scored the TD on a 30 yard pass play from Jerry Steele. The extra point was wide. Also in the first quarter, Jack Munari scored on a 20 yard run. After a long series of downs in the second quarter, Ronnie Brand went over to make it 20-0 at the half.

Following a 60 yard TD run by Pete Holt, which was called back, the Huskies scored on a one-yard plunge by John Hadraba. The final score came on an end run by Pete Holt, resulting in the beautiful North Hollywood 34, Fremont 0.

NORTH HOLLYWOOD versus LOS ANGELES

Playing the final practice game at Los Angeles, North Hollywood suffered her first defeat of the season. The Huskies stayed right in the game all the way and at the half trailed only 10-7.

North Hollywood gathered power and gained a lead following a TD and a safety. (The game was a high school oddity with every scoring method used: TD, safety, and an L.A. field goal). Late in the fourth quarter, leading 15-10, the Huskies were stopped on a drive and were forced to punt; an L.A. lineman picked it up and ran for a TD.

The final score, a real heartbreaker, was Los Angeles 17, North Hollywood 15.

NORTH HOLLYWOOD versus RESEDA

Opening League play in a night game at Reseda High, North Hollywood received its first notice as to the strength of the Valley League. A spirited Reseda team held the Huskies scoreless while they marched up and down the field. Injuries and penalties almost cost the Huskies the game.

In the third quarter North Hollywood tallied on a short plunge to lead. At the final gun the score still stood North Hollywood 7, Reseda 0.

Huskie interference fails for Munari.

NORTH HOLLYWOOD versus VAN NUYS

The oldest rivalry in the Valley was renewed on the gridiron, and when the smoke cleared away it was a sad sight for the Huskies.

Playing its second league game at Van Nuys, North Hollywood suffered its second and worst defeat ever by a Wolf team. The only consolation that the Huskies received was that they stopped All-City back, Jerry Mollett.

North Hollywood scored only when second-string quarter-back John Alsup threw a 32 yard pass to end Ron Fritch.

NORTH HOLLYWOOD versus CANOGA PARK

The power to fight back when angered brought North Hollywood one of her finest victories of the season. Canoga Park was loaded with fine backfield talent and rated as a big threat in the Valley League.

The Huskies really shined in this night game at Reseda High. The first half saw Canoga leading 6-0 as both teams battled up and down the field.

In the third quarter, Huskie Mark Millard completed a sustained drive by going over from the three. Ronnie Brand's extra point kept North Hollywood in the lead till the final gun: Huskies 7, Canoga 6.

NORTH HOLLYWOOD versus BIRMINGHAM

Heavily favored, and on their home field, North Hollywood met the Birmingham Braves. As a result of fumbling away scoring chances and of comical errors, the Huskies lost to Birmingham for the first time in a major sport.

The first half was scoreless as North Hollywood failed to capitalize on any plays. Following the half, Birmingham scored after a series of three Huskie fumbles. In the fourth quarter the Braves scored again, and the final score stood North Hollywood 0, the Birmingham Braves 13.

NORTH HOLLYWOOD versus SAN FERNANDO

Playing an unusually fine defensive game, the North Hollywood Huskies won their closing game of the 1956 season.

North Hollywood managed to power into San Fernando territory on many occasions, but failed on any sustained drive throughout the first half.

A third quarter interception by Lee Critchfield, who rambled 18 yards to the Tiger five, set up the final TD. Jerry Steele moved over three plays later as North Hollywood won, 6-0.

The Huskies' ground power in action.

This year's North Hollywood High School football season was considered a poor showing for the Huskie powerhouse. As was said at the beginning of the year, nothing short of the League crown could favorably follow last season's standing, when the Huskies took second place in the City's strongest league behind one of the best high school squads in California.

No, in comparison the 1956 record is only fair, but, by itself, it still is an admirable standing for any year's results. Throughout the schedule, injuries handicapped the North Hollywood forces, and we can remember no contest in which the Huskies were at full strength.

A lot can be said of the lettermen leaving this team. No one doubts the outstanding material that was evidenced in the Huskie players. Although injuries hit them harder than any other Valley team's members, they constantly applied many abilities to bring home victory after victory.

Jim Maas, Jerry Steele, Mark Millard, Ron Bell, Jim Krueger, John Hadraba, Ron Brand, Noel Van Ness, Doug Greene, Mel Manalis, Bryant Hanke, Harry Sykes, Vern Cleva, Tom Zinzer, and others will leave, but there are next year's players. They will bring home crowns for North Hollywood to wear.

Huskie Pups

This year's football season started slowly for the Huskie Bee's. Hit with injuries and a lack of good depth, they put on a creditable showing in each and every ball game.

Facing Burroughs in the first game, the greenness of our team was soon discovered by the more experienced Indian team as they rolled up a 20-0 victory.

The second practice game was against Fremont, and the machinery of a good team peaked out from a corner. The Bee's held down a strong Fremont team throughout the game. Final score: Fremont 13, North Hollywood 6.

With victory almost in their hands, the Huskie Pups were turned back 6-0 by Los Angeles, thus ending our practice season with a 0-3 record.

More Bees

Starting a new league season at Reseda, the Bees turned on a steady stream of power and crushed their opponent, 20-6. This win was only a sign of what was to come.

In their second league encounter, the Bees, in retaliation for the Varsity beating, soundly whipped the Van Nuys Bees, 25-13.

Against Canoga Park, North Hollywood continued its mastery of the gridirons in a tight 7-point victory. The final score was 14-7.

Meeting the Birmingham Braves at Birmingham, the Huskie Bees lost their first league game to the eventual League Champs. North Hollywood was soundly stopped, 19-6.

In the final game of the season North Hollywood met San Fernando, and the surprise of the day resulted in a stunning defeat of the Blue and Gray by the score of 26-13.

Cee Basketball

The Huskie Cees, all inexperienced beginners, turned in one of the finest records for a Cee team at North Hollywood. This season, with a group of outstanding 10th graders backed up by two lone 11th graders, the Cees had a 12-2 season record.

Heartbreaking losses, to Van Nuys by 5 and to Reseda by 3, kept them out of the Valley Championship. Outstanding players were Neal Kaminski, Rich Stenton, Nick Breit, Bob Cruger, and Earl Bender.

BEE BASKETBALL

Coach Paul Xanthos

Because of the loss of good players to Varsity and J.V. basketball, Coach Paul Xanthos had little material with which to work. B-10's provided the nucleus of a team which needed a lot of developing if it were to equal past Bee teams.

Throughout the season, the team rose and fell. When the final whistle sounded, the record stood 6 wins—4 losses in League play.

Out of this gloomy season arose possibly the finest basketball material that North Hollywood will ever see; 6'3" Bruce Loughner led all Bees, in rebounding, in the Valley. Also leading the attack were George Rathman, Chuck Ellis, Lee Abel, Jerry Green, Dick Rodseth and returning letterman, Jeff "Ivy League" Lugash.

Lost at the end of the season to the new Polytechnic High School were Co-captain Gaylord Smith, Zeke Zwillinger, Larry Valdez, and Al Collis.

This year's Cee Team, along with its big brothers, is enjoying a very successful season. The Cees suffered a mild upset when they were tied by Van Nuys 43-43. Outstanding Cee athletes are Dennis Williamson in the 100 yard dash and 660, Joel Bloom in the low hurdles, Tony Sides in the 1320, and Eddie Kotal in the high jump and pole vault.
